RESEARCH FUNDING/FELLOWSHIPS

University of Kansas

Externally-Funded Grant/Contract

Funded

1. Adams, D. (Principal). Saving for Education, Entrepreneurship, and Down Payment (SEED) Research at KU. Ford Foundation (2004 - 2010).
Four related studies of the national initiative that included 12 community-based organizations administering asset building programs for children and youth in the US and Puerto Rico. A multi-year, multi-method research design included a large quasi-experimental impact assessment, in-depth interviews, focus groups, and a parent survey. National partners include CFED and the Center for Social Development at Washington University
2. Adams, D. (Principal). Research design project for a national Children and Youth Savings Account Policy Demonstration (CYSAPD). A consortium of private foundations (2001 - 2003).
Plan for a multi-year, multi-method study of asset building and asset effects in a national policy demonstration of matched savings accounts for children and youth. Demonstration to be administered by the Corporation for Enterprise Development (CFED). Research is being designed jointly by a team of faculty members and staff from the Center for Social Development (CSD) at Washington University and the University of Kansas School of Social Welfare. Planning phase funding from CFED
3. Adams, D. (Principal). Funding for field instruction for two graduate student units at Heart of America Family Services IDA programs, the Family Asset Building program on Kansas City, Missouri's Westside and the Wyandotte Individual Development Account (IDA) Program at Wyandotte High School and Northeast Kansas City, Kansas. The Kauffman Foundation and the US Department of Health and Human Services through subcontracts with Heart of America Family Services (1999 - 2002).
With supervision, graduate students assist with the implementation and evaluation of a demonstration designed to help participants and their family members accumulate assets for higher education, homeownership, and small business development

4. Adams, D. (Principal). Research on the Wyandotte Individual Development Account (IDA) Program at Wyandotte High School and Northeast Kansas City, KS. The Kauffman Foundation (1999 - 2002).
Study of a demonstration designed to help teens and their parents accumulate assets for higher education, homeownership, and small business development. Demonstration administered by Heart of America Family Services Family Focus Center with funding from the Kauffman Foundation and the US Department of Health and Human Services
5. Adams, D. (Principal). Funding for consultation on Individual Development Accounts. The Assistive Technology for Kansans project, the Technology Act grantee for Kansas, and the Kansas Assistive Technology Cooperative (KATCO) (2001).
Goal of project is to expand personal financing options for people with disabilities who need assistive technology in order to enhance their social and economic well-being
6. Adams, D. (Principal). Research on the Family Asset Building Program at Heart of America Family Services Family Focus Center, Kansas City, MO. The Kauffman Foundation and the Corporation for Enterprise Development through subcontracts with agency (1997 - 2001).
Study of a pilot project designed to help low- and moderate-income families accumulate assets for higher education, homeownership, and small business development

Proposal Submitted

1. Adams, D. D. (Principal). Paycheck Away from Homelessness: The Relationship between Financial Fragility and Housing Instability in Households Headed by Single Mothers. National Association of Social Workers $10,000, Submitted March 4, 2015 (September 1, 2015 - May 31, 2016).

HONORS/AWARDS/HONOR SOCIETIES

Individual Honor/Award

ROCCO Award, School of Social Welfare. (April 6, 2016)

Recognition for service to the School in mentoring an international GTA through some difficulties in teaching a graduate level course. Met with the GTA on several occasions, met with students individually, and the class as a whole. Provided guidance to the GTA who received much better student evaluations the following semester.

Sabbatical Leave, University of Kansas. (Fall 2015)

I used my fall 2015 sabbatical leave to further my research and disseminate findings from prior studies, in part by collaborating with colleagues at two universities in Taiwan. I addressed large groups of students, and met with small faculty groups, at both National Taiwan University and Fu Jen university. I also presented an all-day workshop on asset building and asset effects research for the Taiwanese Association of Social Work.

EXTERNAL OR INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS AND COLLABORATIONS

Educational Travel

GYTTE, Puebla, Mexico. I volunteered to recruit and lead a group of 11 adults on a 10-day educational and service trip to Mexico for experiential learning on rural poverty in the south-central region of the country. GYTTE is a faith-based economic and social development organization near the village of Tlancualpican offering health education, sustainable agricultural consultation, and subsidized livestock with husbandry training. We participated in educational sessions each morning, and provided volunteer service in the form of manual labor alongside people from nearby villages constructing composting toilets and smoke-free stoves and ovens in GYTTE's programs to eradicate parasites in children and respiratory problems facing women. (January 8, 2016 - January 17, 2016)

Engaged Scholarship Project

National University of Taiwan, Taiwan. Presentations on Financial Capability approach and disrupting poverty at Fu-Jen University, National Taiwan University and the Taiwan National Association of Social Workers. (September 30, 2015 - October 7, 2015)

Research Collaboration

Children and Youth Finance International (CYFI), Amsterdam, Netherlands. I used PI return money to bring Floor Knoote, CYFI Research Director, to KU. She consulted with KU faculty members on her international research agenda with an eye toward future collaborations. She also spoke to a PhD research class and an MSW research class about her research on asset building among youth around the world. (February 27, 2016 - March 5, 2016)
